

Doing things differently.

Traditional recruitment models are not designed to find temporary legal resource which can be challenging and a source of frustration for many businesses. To overcome this challenge we have created a convenient and simple alternative called DWF Resource.

DWF Resource is our flexible resourcing service, providing high quality legal support when, where and how our clients need it.

Our flexible resourcing service is:

- Integrated - fits seamlessly into the way you do business and the way DWF works with you
- Present - from Glasgow to London, Newcastle to Bristol, we have lawyers ready and waiting to work with you
- Efficient - easy to use and reduces, rather than adds to your workload, leaving you to focus on the day job.

Businesses using DWF Resource benefit from:

- Experts with the required technical and business sector knowledge
- Flexible options and fixed costs
- Support from the DWF Resource team and the client partner
- Adaptability should their resourcing needs change
- Time and cost savings compared to a direct recruitment process.

DWF Resource can provide:

- Short-term support
- Project specific roles
- Interim and cover roles
- On site and off site support
- Blended arrangements

Contacts

If you need legal resource our process is quick and easy. Simply contact your client partner or the DWF Resource team to outline your requirements and objectives.

Our expert resourcing panel will then find the best solution for you at a price you can afford.
